Altgeld's Title as Governor
Questioned.

Some Doubt: Expressed as to Whether
He Was Naturalized.

The 'Anarchists Knew His Sentiment

Efforts Will Be Made to Liberate Another

ference—Resolutions of Thanks to the Governor.

By Telegraph to The Times.

Chicago, June 28.—[By the Associated Press.] A sensational sequel comes tonight to Gov. Altgeld's release of the Haymarket Anarchists. The Journal raises the question whether he is legally Governor of the State of Illinois, or a citizen of the United States. The Journal says Gov. Altgeld bases his claim to citizenship on the simple statement that his father was naturalized while his son was in Prussia in 1848, and came to this country with his parents when boy. If the father was under a citizen- ship, there is no question as to whether there is, but if the elder Altgeld waited until his son was over 21 before taking out papers, then the title of the Governor to citizenship is clouded. I have friends of Fielden's who are his friends of Fielden's who are his friends who knew before the election that Altgeld was in sympathy with the cause of the Amnesty Association from the fact that he is one of the signers of a manifesto. It is said that the Amnesty Association will continue its labors with a view to

Representatives of fifty socialist sections in the United States will open a conference here in July. One prominent member of the Chicago organization said today that resolutions thanking Gov. Altgeld will be adopted unanimously.

THE FOLSOM TRAGEDY.
Schell Dying, but Sontag is Expected Recover.
SACRAMENTO, June 28.—[By st

Associated Press.] In response to an inquiry made by the Record-Union Tuesday night, Warden Aull stated that the report that he had correspondence showing that a plot between Sontag and Dalton to escape and liberate Evans and Sontag from Visalia jail was not strictly true. That is, he has no such correspondence from any source known to him.

to be reliable. There was some ground for the report, but it was partly a mistake. The wounded convicts are about the same condition, and it will take a couple of days before one can tell whether it is necessary to amputate Sontag's leg. Schell is not expected to survive.

New Political Organization.
INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.), June 28.—Senator Pfeffer of Kansas today, in an interview, said: "The Sherman law will repealed the first thing when Congress meets. The effect of this will be to destroy both of the old parties and build up a new one. The United States by a new alignment of parties. The People's party is but the preliminary make-up of one which is to assume control. The new organization is to be composed of the People's party members and will receive many recruits from both of the other large organizations which are now closing their careers. The Indian silver movement means a general panic. Out of this will grow much of the strength of the People's party. The silver question has been giving us much aid all along."

Closing Cotton Mills.
PHILADELPHIA, June 28.—The depressing effect of the present condition of the cotton trade is making itself felt at Frankford and Kensington. Managers of mills are trying to avert suspension of the entire plant by laying off ployees of one loom at a time, hope that trade will take a boom; but the large plants in Frankford finally decided to shut down for a month at least, and others in Kensington, it is rumored, will soon follow the example. The mill first to succumb are the Calcutta and Berkshire, both operated by the Berkshire Mill Company, employing 600 hands.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The President has made the following appointments: Commodore A. W. Weaver, Rear Admiral, vice Harmony, retired; James Sheakle, Alaska, Governor; George W. Snow, Salt Lake City, Surveyor-General of Utah; Jos. C. Straughan, Surveyor-General of Idaho; Charles F. Easley, Surveyor

SPLITTING HAIRS.

The Many Factors in Hawaiian Politics Still Busy.

Blount Will Not Make a Fourth of July Oration.

Overtures to England Likely to Be Made by the Government.

Spreckels Gives a Dinner, but Refrains from Political Discussions—News of Thurston's Interview With Cleveland.

By Telegram to The Times.

HONOLULU, June 21.—[Correspondence of the Associated Press, per steamer Australia, June 28.] During the two days that have elapsed since the departure of the last steamer for San Francisco there have been no new developments in politics, but American tongues here have been wagging in a vigorous manner at Minister Blount's refusal to participate in the coming Fourth of July celebration. Not only did the American Minister refuse to attend the meeting of Americans to arrange for a proper observance of their national day, but he also declined to address his countrymen as part of their demonstration. Mr. Blount gives as a reason for his policy of standing aloof that he believes the political situation here to be so peculiar that it would not be becoming in him to take part in any public demonstration.

Although he does not say so, it is quite evident that Mr. Blount looks upon the Fourth of July celebration here as a purely annexationist affair, and he does not wish to participate in any affair that could give the impression that he favored the annexationist cause. American residents here say that the Fourth of July is not an annexationist holiday, but is and has been for years in Honolulu a day when patriotic Americans, whatever their local politics might be, joined together in the observance of a day set by their ancestors as a national holiday in the United States.

Claus Spreckels gave an elaborate dinner last night to about forty guests, in honor of his son's return from China. As those invited, with the exception of a few naval officers, were all Royalists, it was expected some interesting political speeches would be made. Politics were not mentioned, however, and the dinner was merely social.

The barkentine Hilo, which arrived from San Francisco yesterday, brought news of Minister Thurston's interview with President Cleveland. Mr. Cleveland's address is regarded by annexationists as an indication that annexation will not be considered by his administration.

Now that the hope of becoming part of the United States is on the wane, leading men in charge of the government are casting about for something else. They have apparently decided that if annexation fails they will not accept a protectorate until overtakes a stable government. If England will have none of it, and the provisional government finds that it cannot stand alone it will eat humble pie and come back to the United States for a protectorate.

HADDEN DEAD.

The Victim of Capt. Mellon Dies Quite Suddenly.

RIVERSIDE, June 28.—[Special.] Edgar M. Hadden, the young man who was shot two weeks ago in a Santa Fe train by the accidental discharge of a pistol in the hands of Capt. J. A. Mellon, died suddenly at 7 o'clock this evening, while his attendant was at dinner. He had been so much better that it was expected to remove him to San Bernardino Friday. He was reading a newspaper when the attendant went to dinner. Capt. Mellon is out on $2000 bail.

COULDN'T PLACE THEIR HITS.

And 'Frisco Drops the Game to Oakland.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—[By the Associated Press.] At the Piedmont grounds, this afternoon, the Oakland team defeated the San Francisco club by a score of 7 to 3. Griffith pitched a strong, steady game against the 'Friscoes and the latter found it troublesome to place their hits. On the other hand, Oakland hit the curves of Balas when runners were on the bases, and earned four of their runs.

Protested Paper.

NEW YORK, June 28.—Post, Martin & Co., a banking firm, whose specialty is the distribution of interest for counties, small railroads, water and other corporations, had some of their paper protested today. The paper was afterward returned. The delay was due to the stringency of money.

Date of the Extra Session.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—Though no official announcement has yet been made on the subject, it is found to be the almost universal opinion of the members of Congress now in the city that Congress will be called to meet in extra session on the first Monday in September, which will be September 4.

Receiver for the Galling Company.

BUFFALO (N. Y.), June 28.—A receiver has been asked for the Galling Ordinance Company, which was preparing to build a great plant in the suburbs. It has a capital of $1,000,000, and was organized to build the heavy ordinance after Dr. Galling's patent.

Huntington's Bonds.

NEW YORK, June 28.—C. P. Huntington said this afternoon he had not sold $1,000,000 of any of his part of his bonds abroad. He said some small lots in New York—odds and ends—so to speak. The present is no time to sell bonds.

The Ontario Bank.

ONTARIO (Can.), June 28.—Atty.-Gen. Hart and Commissioners Gerberding and Dismore examined the Citizens' Bank today and find it perfectly solvent. It will open for business tomorrow.

In Indian Territory.

ST. LOUIS, June 28.—The United States Court of Indian Territory has appointed receivers for the Choctaw Coal and Railway Company.

No "Divy."

NEW YORK, June 28.—The directors of the Daily Training Company have decided the dividend payable June 30.

Into Liquidation.

LOCK HAVEN (Pa.) June 28.—The State Bank of Lock Haven has gone into liquidation.

THE COLLECTOR BOUNCED.

Another Removal Consequent Upon the Puget Sound Frauds.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—[By the Associated Press.] President Cleveland this morning summarily removed from office Lotan, the Collector of Customs at Portland, Or. This unusual action was taken on receipt this morning of a telegram from the special agents of the Treasury Department, who have been engaged some time in investigating fraudulent practices prevailing in the Puget Sound and Portland districts. The telegram stated they had information of the intended landing in Portland of a large number of Chinese coolies. After Lotan's summary removal this morning his deputy was placed in charge, and will continue to act until Black, the new Collector, has qualified.

On June 15, Collector Lotan, in disregard of official instructions from the Treasury Department, landed from the steamer Danube about two hundred and fifty Chinese, claiming to be merchants, but who were described in an official report to the department as a scaly and uncouth appetizing lot of coolies. More coolies are expected on board the steamer Haytian Republic, en route to Portland, and it is believed by the Treasury Department if Collector Lotan had been left in office he would have landed them without regard to the law, as was done in the case of the Danube. As far back as March 3 Collector Lotan was instructed by Assistant Secretary Spaulding as follows: "It is ascertained that many of the Chinese entering the United States upon fraudulent papers certifying them to be returning merchants. You will hereafter disregard such papers, and refuse entry until it is proved to your satisfaction that persons presenting them have right to land." Since that time many hundred Chinese have been landed at Portland upon bogus affidavits and certificates.

FOR THE FOURTH.

The Nation's Birthday to Be Celebrated at the Fair.

A Dairy Exhibit Among the Additions to the Exposition—The Attendance Still Reaching a High Figure.

By Telegram to The Times.

CHICAGO, June 28.—[By the Associated Press.] From the size of the crowd attending the World's Fair today, it is evident that special features are not necessary to bring the populace to Jackson Park. There was no prominent attraction on the programme, and yet no less than 128,000 people passed through the turnstiles. It was a beautiful day, and everybody seemed to enjoy it. Corrected, the figures on yesterday's attendance show 149,278 admissions, of which 131,132 were paid. On the corresponding day at the Centennial the total attendance was 26,184.

Unless the unexpected should happen, there will be a dairy exhibit at the World's Fair in July. This announcement, which was issued by Chief Buchanan of the Department of Agriculture today, was received with thanksgiving by some five hundred exhibitors, who for the past two months have been delayed in submitting to exasperating delays and financial losses by the failure of the exposition company to furnish facilities for displaying their products. The chief cause of complaint was the absence of any kind of refrigeration, and the promise is made that this matter will be rectified at once. Great arrangements have been made for the celebration of the Fourth of July at the World's Fair. Four groups of trained singers, numbering 500 each, have been stationed at suitable points in the grounds, and will lead the singing of patriotic songs, in which it is expected a quarter of a million voices of those on the grounds will join. The great volume of sound will be punctuated by cannon salutes, and the ringing of every bell in the city. Every person on the grounds will carry an American flag.

CONDEMNED ARMENIANS.

A Hope That the Sultan May Show Clemency.

LONDON, June 28.—[By Cable and Associated Press.] Sir Edward Grey, Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, stated that the government had reason to hope the sultan would remit the sentence of death pronounced on several condemned to death for alleged seditious rioting at Cesarea and Marsovan last spring.

Ohio Prohibitionists.

CLEVELAND, June 28.—After routine business this morning the Prohibition Convention adopted a platform favoring prohibition, the prohibition of suffrage, issuance of money by Government only, readjustment of taxes, Government control of railroads and telegraphs, prohibition of speculation in food products, protection of the day of rest, liberal pensions, revision of the immigration laws, and the election of the President and Senators by the people. It declared against the use of public money for sectarian schools, and deplores the increase of local indebtedness.

In the afternoon the convention nominated the following candidates: Governor, Rev. Gideon P. Machin of Germantown; Lieutenant-Governor, S. R. Ellis of Warren county; treasurer, Abraham Ludlow, Springfield; Attorney-General, S. E. Young, Portage; Supreme Court Judge, J. Gallagher, Belleair; Food Commissioner, S. H. Todd, Wakarusa; member of the Board of Public Works, E. H. Brosius, Clark county.

Drove into the River.

SOMONA (Cal.), June 28.—Last Monday morning two men, painters who, names are unknown, from Oakland, hired a horse and buggy at Jamestown to go to the "Angels" camp. The parties had a disagreement at Tuttle town and were separated. One took the buggy, saying he would return to Angela. This was after dark, and by mistake he took the road to Reynolds's ferry. By some dark he did not see the bridge and drove into the river. Both man and horse were drowned. The body has not yet been recovered. The men, for a short time past, have been engaged in painting the buildings of the Hawaiian mine.

Davitt's Successor Elected.

DUBLIN, June 28.—The election in the House of Commons, caused by the withdrawal from the House of Michael Davitt, Anti-Rent League, Anti-Tenement House, was elected without opposition. It was thought that should Davitt be granted a first-class certificate by a bankruptcy court, his insolvency having caused his retirement from Parliament, Abraham will retire and Davitt will offer himself for reelection.

CUSTOMS FRAUDS.

California Central Bags a Topic for Discussion.

Difficulty in the Matter of Imposing Duties Thereon.

A Letter from a Dealer to the Investigating Committee.

He Holds That the Reported Loss of Big Sums to the Government is Groundless—A Bagmaster Deeply Concerned.

By Telegram to The Times.

NEW YORK, June 28.—[By the Associated Press.] James Wilson of this city was recently a witness before the Customhouse Investigating Committee, but, feeling that the evidence he would give was not comprehensive enough, he has written a letter to Chairman Fairchild of the investigating committee, in which he says, in part: "I do not feel the proceedings of the committee were seriously intended to elicit all the facts regarding importations and return of California central bags. The fault was not in the appraiser, but in the law of Congress. The McKinley act called upon the appraiser to distinguish between bags of foreign and domestic manufacture, but it is impossible, however preponderating the balance of evidence may be, to say absolutely where an individual bag is made, and it seems to me that, under the circumstances, the appraiser cannot justly impose a penalty of duty, but is bound to give the bag the benefit of the doubt."

"The talk that the Government has been defrauded of many thousands of millions of dollars, is sheer nonsense. This investigation was instituted by Collins, a bagmaster, whose brief you evidently accepted whole. Now you do not appear to have asked Collins how it is that he was engaged so long in importing these bags himself, without paying duty on them, or why he was required to pay duty on an importation of 70,000 bags shipped him as California bags, but which had never been in California at all, and most of which are branded with the name of Arnold, Brauer & Co., a firm of grain shippers in Buenos Ayres, South America. I have actual knowledge that, for the last year, Collins has been busy collecting evidence to prove the foreign origin of most of these returned bags, and yet within that time I have sold him many thousands of these bags, all of which he entered free, and in regard to which he has taken oath at the customhouse in New York that to the best of his knowledge and belief they are bags of American manufacture. You evidently adopt his (Collins) theories with unquestioning faith, and treat with slight consideration and scant courtesy those half dozen of other witnesses, most of them men of wide and wider experience than he, and have apparently condemned, as ignorant and inefficient, the New York examiner, and, by implication, all other examiners or appraisers. These central bags are packed and brought every customhouse from Boston to New Orleans."

The Sensational McWhirter Case.

FRESNO, June 28.—In the trial of Richard S. Heath for the murder of McWhirter, Stillwell, a reporter, was examined by W. W. Foote, who was asking what money the Blasingames had paid him as detective, M. M. Foote called W. W. Foote's attention to Lee Blasingame, claiming the latter was nodding to the witness to coach him. Blasingame told M. M. Foote he lied, when the latter started for him, and they were stopped by the officers and W. W. Foote. Some of them parties made place to draw a pistol, when Attorney Walker asked that all parties be dismissed. After some wrangling Blasingame was fined. Excitement during the episode was intense. Henry D. Bigelow, of the Examiner, testified he saw Heath in December last in San Francisco. Heath said McWhirter had been killed by a young business man of Fresno. The latter discovered some months after his marriage that his wife was about to have a child, very prematurely, and he threatened of exposure she had been induced to confess that McWhirter was the cause of it.

Chowpau Arriving.

CADIZ (I. T.), June 28.—Trouble has arisen between the Jackson and Jones factions of the Cherokee Indians and will probably come to a focus within a brief time. The cause of the difficulty is the payment of money to the militia. The cause is to suppress a feud between the two factions, and because of the execution on July 7 of nine Choctaws belonging to the Jackson faction. Last night Mr. Durant, captain of the Choctaw militia, received a telegram from General Jones, directing him to proceed at once to Tuskegee. The Jackson party is ready to go to any extremity to prevent the execution of the Indians, and declare they will never tolerate it. The Jones party claims the law will be carried out. Serious trouble is probable.

Postoffice Statistics.

WASHINGTON, June 28.—The annual review of salaries of the Presidential postmasters has been completed by Frank H. Jones, First Assistant Postmaster-General, with the following results: Total number of Presidential postoffices in operation July 1, 3337; aggregate salaries, $8,663,700; total gross receipts for the four quarters ended March 31, $89,182,801; an increase as compared with last year of $5,003,828.

A Criminal Assault.

SAN JOSE, June 28.—Constable Reynolds arrived here at 11:30 tonight, having in custody a man named Hanson, who made a felonious assault on Mrs. Mary Marriott, at tunnel No. 1, near Los Gatos. He was brought here for safety, on account of the excitement there.

Capt. Bourke to Be Tried.

LONDON, June 28.—Capt. Bourke, senior officer among the survivors of the warship Victoria, will be tried by a special naval board, sitting at Malta, for having lost the vessel. Further proceedings depend upon the outcome of this trial.

Last of the Racers.

CHICAGO, June 28.—The last of the cowboy racers came in today, George Jones arriving early in the morning, and "Doc" Middleton reaching the gates shortly after noon.

Gibraltar's Governor Dead.

LONDON, June 28.—Gen. Nicholson, Governor of Gibraltar, is dead.

A CALIFORNIAN JAILED.

A Would-be Wife Murderer Stays a Jail.

PHOENIX (Ariz.), June 28.—[By the Associated Press.] Fred Schaeffer, a ranchman, living three miles from here, shot and fatally wounded Judge Richards this afternoon, tearing away the entire left side of the face. It was the result of a quarrel between Schaeffer and his wife, in the course of which he tried to shoot his wife. Richards grabbed the gun by the muzzle when Schaeffer pulled the trigger. Richards fell, and, as Mrs. Schaeffer ran screaming into the yard, her husband leveled the gun at her, but missed fire. Schaeffer is in jail. Schaeffer is 60 years of age and was formerly a wealthy Californian. Richards is nearly 70, and had been living at Schaeffer's for the past two years.

AGAINST ANNIE SEVERANCE.

Attachment Secured by a Boston Lawyer.

NEW YORK, June 28.—[By the Associated Press.] An attachment has been obtained in this city for Herbert L. Harding, a Boston lawyer, against Annie C. Severance of Los Angeles, Cal., for $10,000 for professional services in connection with the will of the late Mrs. Mary F. H. Seales, wife of Edward H. Seales, and widow of Mark Hopkins, the California millionaire. Mr. Harding claims to have retained Mrs. Severance, and was instrumental in obtaining, at Salem, Mass., her share of the estate, which amounted to $250,000. An attachment was served on the Merchants' National Bank, where, it was said, Mrs. Severance had bonds.

CLEVELAND, June 28.—It took eleven innings to finish the game. Cleveland, 8; Washington, 6.

THROUGH THE HEART.

The Wife of a Prominent Lawyer's Son Kills Herself.

VISALIA (Cal.), June 28.—[By the Associated Press.] Mrs. Antoinette A. Daggett, wife of Earl Daggett, son of the prominent lawyer, Alfred Daggett, shot herself through the heart at 3 o'clock this afternoon with suicidal intent. Her original name was Pepper. She married young Daggett when he was not 20 years of age, last March. Nobody knew of this fact until this month. The woman was a nurse, and last year she nursed Mrs. Daggett while the latter was sick in San Francisco, and there got acquainted with the doctor and married him. There is no known cause for the deed.

Threatens to Cut.

CHICAGO, June 28.—The Grand Trunk Railway, in protesting against the action of the Central Traffic Association in extending the time of excursion tickets, says that unless the arrangement is discontinued it will begin to cut rates. Other roads say they will pay no attention to the Grand Trunk. The stand taken by the Atchison regarding lower rates had a good effect, and several roads today admitted they thought the present rates are too high. The matter will probably be arranged at a special meeting of the Western Association soon. When arranged the rates will be cut. The round trip from all points west and northwest.

A Silver Convention.

DENVER, June 28.—Editor Patterson, of the Rocky Mountain News, speaking tonight on the silver question, said: "In order to emphasize the fact that ruin threatens the transmissouri country, and especially the silver section, the News will in the near future call for a mass convention in Denver, of a character that in numbers and influence will arrest the attention of the country to its protest against the monstrous crime that is contemplated."

This Beats Dr. McGinnis.

DENVER (Iowa), June 28.—Catholic Bishop Bonum will soon be tried before Archbishop Hennessy, of the archdiocese of Iowa, on charges of tyranny towards priests and nuns, refusal to obey orders from Rome, collecting and foolishly expending large sums, extortion, falsehood, etc. This is the first time in the history of the Catholic Church that an American bishop has been put on trial.

Cleaned Out the Vault.

LAMAR (Mo.), June 28.—The Hartley Bank at Jericho was robbed early this morning. The robbers went to the house of the cashier and forced him to get up and go to the bank, where they cleaned out the vault. There were four men in the gang, and they effected their escape after securing everything in sight. It is estimated they took between $8000 and $10,000.

Murdered in Revenge.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 28.—A report is current that more arrests of Armenians have been made in Van. Shortly afterward a conspicuous Turkish official was murdered, presumably because he was suspected of spying on the Armenians and securing the arrests in question.

The South Against Silver.

BALTIMORE, June 28.—The News presents the result of a telegraphic canvass of the leading newspapers of the South, showing public sentiment in favor of silver is now overwhelmingly in favor of the repeal of the Sherman law.

THE COURTS.

The Singular Illness Afflicting Lottie Kellogg.

Home Without a Mother is Preferable to the Patient.

An Amusing Letter Finds Its Way Into Court.

Judge McKinley Makes an Order on a Motion to Dissolve a Restraining Order—Richard Harlow on Trial for Embezzlement.

Whether Lottie Kellogg's complaint is atrophy, chronic and aggravated lateness, or any other ailment that may be come apparent by the same general line of characteristic symptoms, is not at present known. The lack of conclusive evidence on this point was one of the principal reasons found by Judge Clark yesterday for continuing the hearing on the application of Mrs. Sarah Kellogg, Lottie's mother, to be appointed guardian of her daughter, on the grounds that she was an incompetent.

Several weeks ago a fairly well-dressed and respectable-looking young man walked into the County Clerk's office and said that he desired a marriage license. Deputy Kutz stepped promptly up to the register with the alacrity he always displays when assisting in the initial steps of the matrimonial venture in response, and proceeded to fill out the blanks in the big book of record. When he had partially finished this work something was whispered in his ear, and he stopped short. The anxious applicant asked for a reason why, when he was told that he had not a proper name. The woman he desired to marry was Lottie Kellogg, and, as the petition of the mother was then on file, it would be illegal to issue a license until the competency of the second contracting party was established by a court. So a big black mark of cancellation was sorrowfully drawn across the page by Mr. Kutz, and the applicant went out swearing vengeance upon any one who would seek to estrange him from his promised bride. After a time the story developed itself as a hearsay statement was put together to form the connected narrative. Mrs. Kellogg, it was said, had lived in Claremont during last year with her daughter Lottie. The two got along fairly well, as mother and daughter should, for a considerable length of time, until Lottie took it into her head to act queerly. She said it was sickness, but others pronounced it all imagination. She would suddenly be overcome with lassitude and take to her bed, and caution the mother not to touch her, or cause her to move, or she would die. This sort of thing worked pretty well for a time until the old and good-natured mother finally tired of waiting upon a daughter who was so all appearance healthy, and possessed of a robust form and good appetite, and suggested that a little exercise would be of benefit. Lottie didn't see it that way, though, and Mrs. Kellogg lost patience at last, and very decidedly commanded the child of her heart to get up and move about instead of lying idly upon her back. It wasn't Lottie's duty to be obedient and responsive to maternal authority, so she still declared such a course was a waste of time and instant death. The mother's will was the strongest, however, and she insisted upon her command being obeyed, so whenever the "attacks" occurred, Lottie was put through a course of treatment on the plan referred to without delay. She didn't like it at all, but it was noticed that the threatened death never came upon her as she had predicted. But with all the pleasure of peaceful indolence taken away, home and mother became a burden, and Miss Kellogg began her search for a domestic. Miss Maggie Plummer, a friend, who lived at San Gabriel, this Miss Plummer had conceived a singular affection for Lottie, and gave the latter to understand that she might be "lick" just as much and tinged with money as her mother. She immediately retired to her bed with the repeated injunction that she be not moved else that quick and sudden death, which had so long been following on her track, would overtake her. When the mother came to see her, she was so much better, and the young man referred to, who made application for a marriage license, and decided to become his wife. Believing that her daughter was not entirely right in her mind, and further, that she would be the proper person to care for her, Mrs. Kellogg applied for letters of guardianship.

business of the plaintiff company. It appeared from the pleadings and affidavits presented on the motion for the dissolution of the restraining order that the defendant was the manager of said company, but that the board of directors had undertaken to remove him. The motion of the defendant to dissolve the restraining order was based upon two propositions. First, that the injunction would not be, because the effect would be to prevent the exercise of a private right of the person in possession against the inhibition of section 8423 of the Civil Code; and in the second place that he had not been legally removed. If it was conceded that the office of manager was one within the province of the stockholders, the Court took it that the construction of that section was to be made upon the same principles as the rule sustained by the authorities of other States, of which it was a concise statement that equity would not interfere to determine the legality of an election of corporate officers. But that rule did not deprive equity of any power to afford relief where there were other grounds that justified an interference. If it should be necessary to determine incidentally the validity of an election, that provision simply meant that such an action could not be maintained for the purpose of determining the validity of an election or of ousting the person in possession of an office, if, however, a person in possession of an office threatened to, and would unless restrained, commit wrongs for which there would be no redress at law and which would work irreparable injury then equity would interfere to protect the party whose rights were affected.

If such was not the proper construction of the rule, the property rights of a corporation would be at the mercy of any person who might obtain possession of an office as managing agent. No injunction could be maintained which merely restrained the exercise of a corporate office by the person in possession, but it might be maintained to restrain the exercise of such an office by a person in possession, if such exercise was wrongful and in a manner which demanded equitable prevention in order to preserve the rights of others. In short, Packard could not obtain an injunction to restrain the exercise of the office by Todd, based upon the ground that Packard was entitled to the office, but the plaintiff could obtain an injunction, since it would suffer an irreparable injury to the property if equity did not interfere. In 28 New Jersey, 225-226, the holding was made that "It is clear that a court of equity has no jurisdiction to remove an officer of a corporation from an office of which he has possession, or to declare the forfeiture of such office. Its decree will not like judgments in rem, and remove or oust any one from an office which he in fact holds. When the object is simply to determine the regularity of an election, or to declare an officer to be a usurper, or to set aside an election, a court of law is the proper and only competent tribunal. So it is the only proper tribunal to recover the possession of lands, or authoritatively to settle and declare the title in real or personal property. Yet when the object is to protect lands from waste or destruction, to compel the specific performance of a contract or to exercise any other power over them vested in a court of equity, it may inquire and determine as to the title."

Other authorities were quoted from liberally, and as to the additional proposition involved it was thought that as the defendant, Todd, took part in the meeting at which Packard was elected, and he could not dispute its validity, but that even if he could that the meeting of May 26 was duly called as was shown to have been called at the instance of both White and Packard, and one of them was president. The motion to dissolve the restraining order would therefore be denied.

FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.

Richard Harlow was on trial yesterday in Department One charged with embezzling coin and several small articles of Fisher & Green to the value of $75. Harlow, during the latter part of January last, was made the keeper in the saloon of the firm named. One night, upon locking up the place, it was alleged that he took the money for the night, together with a pistol, and failed to return either the money or the pistol. The defense offered was that the defendant had been drinking and therefore was not responsible for his actions, as he did not intend to steal the money or firearm. The case was argued during the afternoon and submitted to the jury at 4 o'clock.

COURT NOTES.

Decree as prayed for in the foreclosure suit of the De Camp Lumber Company vs. Lyons et al. was yesterday awarded the plaintiff, the amount being $1400.

In the case of Sannetina vs. Schmidt Judge Clark yesterday ordered that the sale on execution be delayed for twenty days beyond the time set.

Al Gee and six other Chinamen, having entered their pleas of guilty to the charge of gaming, Judge Clark yesterday ordered that each of the defendants pay a fine of $100 each, in default thereof to be confined in the County Jail in satisfaction of such sentence.

The trial of Edward Fonda, on two charges of obtaining money under false pretenses, was set yesterday in Department One for July 20.

The cause of the People vs. Fred Andrews has been continued until Monday next. Andrews is the morphine "head" who attempted to hang himself in the County Jail Monday morning.

Judge Van Dyke directed that the case of C. L. Brown vs. W. R. Ward et al. be continued, yesterday, for the session, no answer having been returned. H. A. Bond, as plaintiff in the case of Bond vs. Pantoja, through his counsel, moved for non-suit in the action yesterday, and the motion was allowed.

Complaint in a divorce case has been filed by John Swanson against his wife, Maud Swanson.

The suit for recovery of $500 and annulment of contract brought by C. K. Walrath against J. M. Taylor and T. J. Donovan, was still on trial in Department Two yesterday, but the case of the plaintiff not yet having been concluded.

New Suits.

Preliminary papers in the following new suits were filed with the County Clerk yesterday:

Herman Rypinski vs. A. J. Williams; suit for judgment of $483.60.

L. J. Rose vs. John F. Wilson et al.; suit to quiet title.

Today's Calendar.

A UNIQUE ISSUE.

Forthcoming "Columbia Press" Number of the Times.
 At an early date The Times will print a striking special number, in three parts, to celebrate the starting of the new machinery recently put into the Times Building. This machinery includes the noble "Columbia" press, the seven marvelous Mergenthaler Linotype machines, and other cunning devices for the facile production of this journal every day in the year.

Included in the contents of the forthcoming big issue will be technical yet popular descriptions of:
 The Press and the Linotypes;
 The Modern Newspaper;
 The Home of The Times, where the ever-advancing daily is made, and how;
 The Force at Work—the various departments, and how they are conducted as parts of an organized journalistic army;

Gathering the News;
 Evolution of an Item;
 The Watchman's Pneumatic Clock;
 Paper-making;
 History of The Times—the Mirror.
 "We Are Seven" (full-page illustration).

The City of Los Angeles—an elaborate and valuable descriptive article, showing our progress down to date; and

The "Columbia" Foundation, being the first full and authentic description of a press foundation, the like of which never existed since time began. In this unique foundation are more than two hundred rare stones and historical objects gathered from all parts of the world.

The public press reception which we have heretofore promised will be given, if practicable, while the printing of the "Columbia Press" Number is in progress.

A Chimerical Dream.

Don Quixote is not dead. He is immortal. But he possesses the capability of presenting himself to the world under the guise of new personalities and with different cognomens. At present he appears as Lieut. Gov. Daniels of Kansas, and he is busy figuring out financial problems to his own satisfaction, if not to the perfect satisfaction of every other intelligent mind. His latest discovery is a wonderful one, and opens to his vision a millennium in which there will be no poverty. This discovery, which has transpired in his own brain, is a new system of taxation which will make every one happy, and which, to a large extent, will do away with the now imperative necessity, to the poor man, of daily labor. This, of itself, will be sufficient to commend his plan to those who are dissatisfied with the present social order of things, and who are reaching out after some new system by which they may become rich at somebody else's expense and without any laborious effort on their own part.

This is his plan: He proposes to levy a tax on incomes, as follows: One per cent. on incomes of $1,000,000 to $2,000,000; 3 per cent. on $2,000,000 to $5,000,000; 8 per cent. on $5,000,000 to $10,000,000; 18 per cent. on all over $10,000,000. According to his arithmetic, this will create a revenue of about $2,000,000,000. With this $2,000,000,000 the country will be independently rich. It could wage a war bigger than the one of thirty years ago and pay all expenses in cash. Or, the Government could buy up islands and continents. A little more than ninety years ago the United States paid $15,000,000 for Louisiana, at that time considered an extravagant outlay for the empire of the Southwest. With Mr. Daniels' $2,000,000,000 the United States could buy 133 Louisianas every year, and have considerable spending money left. Or, the balance, what is left after paying all the expenses of the Government, about $400,000,000 a year, could be distributed to the people direct. It would give to every man, woman and child the sum of $25 a year. What a help it would be. This $25 would buy a cow—not a very good one—buy a suit of clothes or pay for a trip to the World's Fair. And the beauty of it all is that millions of Americans would be footing the bill. Mr. Daniels of Kansas, you are a genius. Your name should be written in great big letters among the saints of the calendar. We have been rejoicing this year in the new world that Columbus discovered, but great and grand as it is, it is not to be compared with the world discovered by Lieut. Gov. Daniels, who figures out $25 for every man, woman and child in the Republic, and that without their doing a stroke of work. All hail, Gov. Daniels.

At least $200,000,000 worth of British property is always on the sea.

Concerning Prize Idiots.

The Stockton Evening Mail has the following sensible words in relation to the late senseless financial scare in this city:

"Six banks in Los Angeles which, if given a reasonable time to realize on their assets, would be able to pay every dollar they owe, have been forced to close their doors temporarily through the timidity of depositors. There does not seem to be a single cause for the run on the banks in the southern city. One of the bank commissioners is authority for the statement that there are no sounder financial institutions anywhere than are the banks of Los Angeles; nevertheless, business will have been disorganized for months by the foolish policy of depositors. From present indications, not one of the banks will be put into the hands of a receiver. They will simply proceed to do business as usual, and take it as they find it, and resume business at the old stand. And then the very people whose folly might have led to untold damage will be the loudest in their praise of the financial soundness of the community. We tried to burst the banks, but couldn't, and now we know for a certainty they are safe, they will say. It is natural enough for a person whose worldly possessions consist of a few hundred dollars to be deeply concerned as to their safety, but at the very time that he ought to be governed by sound judgment he is the prize idiot of the lot. At the first intimation of danger he makes an onslaught upon the credit of the bank which constitutes his security. Instead of doing what he can to increase confidence he does everything he can to break it down. Having got his money into his own hands, after the bank has weathered the storm and resumed business, he goes back and redeems it, congratulating himself on the fact that he has accomplished a feat in finance from which the Rothschilds might learn a lesson."

"Safe banks are not ruined by runs on them; they are simply crippled, the community being involved in the harm that is done. As a rule the bottom falls out of a rotten bank all at once, as was the case with the Santa Clara concern. There is not a bank in the country that could pay all of its liabilities on the instant."

"It is evident that the wave of financial stringency has struck this State, and the best way to lessen the damage that is liable to occur is for depositors to stand by their local banks."

There appears to be no bottom to the silver market. Bar silver was quoted at 78 in New York on Tuesday. At this price it is, of course, impossible to work with profit any but the richest silver mines, and thousands of men will be thrown out of employment throughout the Rocky Mountain region, to add to the prevailing depression. The only thing that keeps silver from sinking to the level of a commodity, like copper or tin, is Uncle Sam's imprimatur of "One Dollar" on about 60 cents' worth of the metal, but this fictitious arrangement will not continue indefinitely. The wise count will watch with the deepest interest the action of Congress when it meets. This is not a question of politics, and party feeling should be eliminated from the discussion.

How are the lungs of the city of Los Angeles—or, in other words, its parks? Have we breathing places enough for our children and for ourselves? This question of ample provision for parks should not be allowed to rest. Los Angeles, as we have said repeatedly, needs more parks, as well as more improvements in those we already possess. Let not the city forget its duty to the citizens, and let us keep agitating the subject until a more general interest is manifested in park improvements. That is sometimes the best economy which is the most generous in its expenditures.

A mother sits in Fresno by the deathbed of a son, who was shot in resisting the law of his country, while another son lies at Folsom wounded—perhaps mortally—by bullets from the weapons of guards whom he tried to escape. Another object lesson this of the truth of the saying that "the wages of sin is death." For months, or perhaps years, these desperadoes may defy law and society, but, except in rare cases, their day at last comes, and noosed with rope or riddled with lead they go to a felon's grave, unremembered, save by the broken-hearted mothers who gave them birth.

Noteworthy as is the foundation of the new Times press, the composition of the new Liberty bell, which is to ring for the first time at the World's Fair on July 4, is yet more remarkable. A quarter of a million of historical relics were moulded into this unique bell, including souvenirs of every great event in the history of the story of liberty, and of every great leader in the struggle. The idea of the bell was suggested ten years ago, in a short poem written by a California woman, Madge Morris Wagner, now of San Diego.

Dr. Henson of Chicago describes the "personal devil" as a "black toad." He says this creature "squatted" himself near the ear of Chief Justice Fuller while he was writing the World's Fair opening decision.

A correspondent suggests that, in view of the extremely low price of silver, mine-owners should meet to discuss means of securing a reduction in the amount of assessment-work on claims required by the Government. The law at present is that work to the value of $100 must be done annually to hold a claim. Nine-tenths of these claims are as yet unproductive, and the expense of holding such claims falls heavily on men who have at present little chance of obtaining financial assistance to work them.

Under the head of "Americans in Jail" the Express prints the startling news that more arrests of Americans have been made in Turkey; that a conspicuous Turkish official has been murdered because he was suspected of securing the arrests, and that the British government hopes to get the Sultan to remit the sentences of seventeen Americans condemned to death. It is just possible that the Express means Armenians.

PHILADELPHIA has followed Los Angeles in ordering the deportation of a Chinaman illegally in the country. This makes two in about two months, but those two have not left the country yet. Probably, the next Congress will take some steps to give Chinamen another chance to comply with the law, which the Six Companies advised them to disobey.

THE SANTA FE road, which is usually to the front when there is a call for a liberal policy, has issued a circular declaring that it is in favor of one-fare excursion rates to Chicago from all Western territory, and inviting other roads to make these rates. Possibly, if the other roads do not act favorably, the Santa Fe may determine to "go it alone."

THERE is talk of tar and feathers in connection with the welcome which is to be given to Parson Roams when he is returned to Merced. The reverend scoundrel deserves nothing better, yet it is wiser to let the law take its course. Mob violence is always to be deplored. The law should be powerful enough to deal out justice to the vilest of sinners.

KATE FIELD is posing as a prophetess. She has expressed the belief that California will within the next two hundred years produce the typical American, whom, she says, has never yet made an appearance. What shall we do with him? Will Kate want to marry him?

THE Columbus Press thinks the extra session of Congress need not last longer than three days, as all that is necessary is the repeal of the silver bullion purchasing clause of the act of 1890. But what about the "robber tariff"? Will the Democratic party allow it to go on robbing?

THE Ohio Prohibition platform includes mostly everything in the way of projected reforms, from woman suffrage to Government control of railroads. If the Prohibitionists demanded less, they might accomplish more.

ANOTHER suicide is reported from Monte Carlo. And for every one reported, a dozen are hushed up. The existence of that gilded hell is a disgrace to European civilization.

THE paradox of the Dutch taking Holland has been equaled at last. In a country built under water the drought is at the present so severe that drinking water costs a penny a pail.

MRS. LEASE says there is not enough gold in the country to fill the decaying teeth of the old women of America, let alone forming a basis for a national money system.

THE point is not so much what brought about the financial pressure which the country is experiencing, but how can it best be cured.

KENTUCKY whisky has dropped 28 cents a gallon. Surely the good time is coming that the Democrats have waited for.

BIG Philadelphia banks are unable to remit to New York, because they cannot get gold or currency. Give us more money!

FIRE COMMISSIONERS.

Routine Business Disposed of by the Board.

The Fire Commission held its regular weekly meeting yesterday, with all the members of the board present.

Applications from Charles Jenkins and Charles B. Casey for positions as drivers and from John Bellamy for a place as callman were filed. An application from George Flood for an appointment as callman was granted.

The Chief presented the treasurer's receipt for $60, which sum had been realized from the sale of the horse George and from the sale of an old wagon. Filed.

The Chief also reported that M. Hallahan, a callman on engine company No. 4, left the city without permission on the 15th inst. Hallahan was dismissed from the department.

The report also stated that a hydrant had been ordered placed at Grima avenue and Primrose street. Filed.

Also, that the charges against M. Naud, driver of hose No. 4, were for tampering with the fire alarm and being absent from duty without permission on the 20th and 21st of the present month.

Naud was cited to appear before the next meeting of the board.

The petition from residents of the Seventh Ward was presented as referred from the City Council, asking that immediate steps be taken toward the removal of the fireworks located at the corner of East Seventh street and Ruth avenue. Referred to the Chief.

A communication from Thomas L. York stated that he was a painter by trade, and wished to know if it were the intention of the board that employees of the department should be called upon to act as carriage painters while in discharge of their fire duties, as two of them were now doing. Filed.

The Chief stated in reference to the claim for $15, as presented by Mitchell C. House against Sam Haskell, that the latter said he did not owe the money.

Haskell was cited to appear before the next meeting of the board.

After having approved the requisitions the board was adjourned.

THE METHODISTS.

Second Day of the Los Angeles District Conference.

A Liberal Proposition Submitted by the Santa Fe Company.

Will Furnish Camp-meeting Grounds Free of All Charge.

Ministers Licensed to Preach and a Number of Licenses Regarded—Several Interesting Papers Presented. Vote of Thanks.

The second day's session of the District Conference of the Los Angeles District of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Santa Monica yesterday, was largely an adjourned day from the first. G. H. White, presiding elder, occupied the chair, and Rev. J. L. Spencer, of the Union Avenue Church, Los Angeles, acted as secretary.

The devotional exercises were led by Rev. J. B. Holloway of Covina, after which the conference roll was called and all the changes in the district reported, and a collection was taken up to defray the expenses of the conference.

After this the reports of the Sunday-school superintendents and Epworth leagues of the various churches in the district were read, showing all of the leagues and most of the Sunday-schools to be in a prosperous condition and largely attending to their duties.

D. C. Cook, the publisher of Sunday-school literature used so largely throughout the country, delivered an instructive address on "The Practical Points of Sunday-school Work." Mr. Cook was followed by Rev. W. A. Knighton of Monrovia, in a paper which treated on "The Equation of Responsibility Between Pastor and People."

Dr. Stevenson of Santa Monica, made a statement of a very generous offer by the Santa Fe Railroad Company, in which it proposed to furnish grounds for camp-meeting purposes; also proposing to erect thereon meeting buildings, cottages, bathhouses and all of which are to be for the use of the Methodists of the district as long as they desire and without charge. The location of these grounds and buildings is to be near the Arcadia Hotel in Santa Monica.

The offer was favorably considered, and a committee consisting of three clergymen and two laymen were appointed to look into the matter and report at the adjourned session of the conference. The following named gentlemen constituted the committee: Rev. W. A. Knighton, J. L. Spencer, Dr. Stevenson and Messrs. W. B. Barber and Fred H. Ridge.

At the afternoon session Rev. E. A. Healy discussed the doctrinal standards of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and Clint M. Lee read an interesting paper on "How Can the Epworth Leagues Strengthen Each Other?" J. P. Widney also spoke on the class-meeting for the church today.

By a vote of the conference, J. W. Robinson and J. H. Rosen of East Los Angeles were licensed to preach, and the following license renewals of local preachers were allowed: S. W. Carnes, J. R. Ross, A. B. Embrey, Frank M. Lapham, H. W. Cummings, G. W. Coultas, Lincoln Caswell, W. B. Barber, W. P. Wright, G. W. Windsor, J. H. Giffon, A. J. Osgood and S. M. Widney.

M. G. Moxley was recommended for admission on trial to the annual conference. The licenses of the following exhorters were renewed by the conference: John Glasco, E. J. Thorne, E. C. Thorne, M. J. McNeil and C. C. Ridgway.

A committee, consisting of Rev. W. M. Sterling and W. B. Barber, was appointed to prepare suitable resolutions on the death of S. B. McKee, late of East Los Angeles.

By a rising vote the conference extended to the citizens of Santa Monica its thanks for the cordial entertainment during the session of the conference, and adjourned to meet August 9, 1893, at the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Los Angeles.

CITY COUNCIL.

A Short Session Held Yesterday—Couple of Bills Introduced.

The City Council met in adjourned session yesterday morning.

President Teed was absent at the time of convening, and Clerk Luckenbach called the meeting to order.

Councilman Nickell was, on motion, named as temporary chairman, and then Councilman Rhodes moved that when the Council adjourns it should do so until 2 p. m. today. Carried.

The Sewer Committee reported, recommending the approval of the plans and specifications as presented by the City Engineer for the construction of that portion of the central intercepting sewer which is to cross the river at Sixth street. The report was adopted, and the City Clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for the same, the proposals to be opened one week from next Monday.

[This will connect the Boyle Heights sewer system with the outfall.]

The ordinance providing for additional help, consisting of thirty men and seven teams, to be employed in the City Engineer for the construction of the street department for a period of sixty days, commencing July 1, was passed under suspension of the rules.

The Council was then, on motion, adjourned.

THE Normal School Middle Class Entered the Class of '93.

The middle class greeting to the graduating class of 1893 of the State Normal School was held in the Assembly Hall of the school last evening.

Besides the members of the faculty, there was a very large and appreciative audience present. The Normal Orchestra opened the programme with an enjoyable selection, and the music rendered during the evening was a credit to the leader and the school.

The remarks by President E. Nichols showed that the graduating class of 1893 was the largest the school had yet had, and was a fitting one for the Columbian year. A vocal solo well rendered by Mrs. L. Barber was followed by an original poem by Joseph E.

Brand on musings at parting, which showed considerable poetical ability. Three silhouettes caused the house to ring with good humor. Miss Virgie Thorpe read a poem, paying a well-merited tribute to the retiring principal, Prof. Ira More. An operetta, The Professor at Home was well rendered by members of the middle class, and heartily applauded, as was also the farce My Fortune. The appropriate words of Miss Belle Cooper to the graduating class elicited a response from Miss Myrtle Oliver that was listened to with rapt attention, and after a closing selection by the orchestra, the audience was dismissed, well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

WEATHER AND CROPS.

Weekly Bulletin of the Weather Bureau for Southern California.

Following is the regular weekly crop bulletin of the Weather Bureau for Southern California for the week ending June 25.

The reports for the past week show that crops made a rapid growth under the influence of the warm, clear weather which prevailed in all the districts. Fruits ripened fast. Apricots are about ready for market, and drying should begin in a few days. Early peaches and peaches are ripening, and the season of the favorable conditions will be in market generally at an early day. Corn is growing finely, and the reports indicate that the crop will be a large one.

Following are reports in detail:

Ventura county—Hardade: The weather continues favorable, and crops are looking well. Irrigation of corn has begun. Los Angeles county—Lancaster: The apricots are in market, and the second mowing of alfalfa has been made, and the hay is retailing at $10 per ton. Verdugo: Apricots, early peaches and peaches are ripening. Berries are abundant. Monrovia: Apricots are ripening, but there is no market for the crop. Duarte: Summer weather prevailed; the highest temperature was 92°. Crops are growing finely; apricots are ripe. Pomona: Apricots are ripening rapidly, the crop amounts to one-third of the normal yield. Prices are uncertain, though it is said that the Fruit Growers' Association has sold 300 tons at $23 per ton. New Mexico county—Colorado: The shipments amount to about a ton a week. Chino: A heavier hay crop than was expected was harvested on the 25th inst. The warm weather is causing sugar beets to make a rapid growth; the crop will be large.

Riverside county—Riverside: The temperature was slightly above the average. The highest was 96°. Berries of all kinds are plenty and cheap. Apricots are ripening rapidly, and the crop will be a large one. San Bernardino county—Ontario: Berries are being shipped in large quantities to Arizona. New Mexico county—Colorado: The shipments amount to about a ton a week. Chino: A heavier hay crop than was expected was harvested on the 25th inst. The warm weather is causing sugar beets to make a rapid growth; the crop will be large.

San Diego county—Fruit is ripening fast and the market is well supplied. Apricots are the finest for years; berries are plenty and cheap.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday at the office of the County Clerk as follows:

George M. Thornburg, a native of Indiana, aged 28 years, a resident of San Diego, to Argenta McKee, a native of California, aged 22 years, a resident of this city.

Otto A. Tessen, a native of Denmark, aged 29 years, to Annie M. Marshall, a native of Maine, aged 25 years; both residents of Gardena.

C. K. Anderson, a native of Minnesota, aged 25 years, to Edie F. Runkle, a native of Indiana, aged 18 years; both residents of this city.

Charles S. Wilkins, a native of Missouri, aged 31 years, a resident of Pomona, to M. Josephine Culbertson, a native of Indiana, aged 29 years, a resident of this city.

E. A. Eastman, a native of Wisconsin, aged 32 years, to Ella E. Jones, a native of Ohio, aged 27 years; both residents of Pasadena.

June Song.
 [Lake George Mirror.]
 O, sing of a scudding six in June!
 He who can sing it sweet—
 When the yachts of God are all abroad,
 Ten million in the fleet.
 Nor mistiest hand in the land
 Can stay one snowy sheet.

Theorile and the bobolink
 Fling challenge to the quail;
 The clover nod to the milkweed pods,
 And the balsam poplar to the alder.
 The soul of the rose on light wing goes
 And sweetens all the gale.

Ah! fair is the green world underneath!
 But O for the blue above!
 To leave the grass and lightly pass,
 As the pinion of a dove.

To the snowy boat that seems to float
 To the haven of my love!

Then hey for a scudding six in June,
 When the world is fresh and sweet;
 When the yachts of God are all abroad,
 Ten million in the fleet.

Not mistiest hand in all the land
 Can furl one flying sheet!

Mutual Compliments.
 [Harper's Bazar.]
 He said she was so lovely that
 If he went to the fair,
 No one would look at other things
 While she was staying there.
 Whereupon upon this flattery
 The maiden straightway said,
 And said if he went out there, too,
 They'd rent him for a rat.

In the June number of the Physical Educator, published in Springfield, Mass., appears an article on the "Gymnasium Treatment of the Pebbly-minded," by Dr. Luther Gulick. It shows how, through the connection of exercise and thus develop those parts of the brain that it is to do with muscular contraction, and that, thus, as well as in other ways described, the brain can be stimulated to develop. That this is not mere theory is shown by the fact that Dr. Gulick, the writer, is describing what he himself has done, giving the reasons for it.

A bonnet so arranged that it will form a sunshade for the afternoon promenade, or a sort of a penthouse in case of a sudden shower of rain, a dignified ornament, standing straight up for ordinary occasions or church, and that will fold flat for the theater, so that the unfortunate man in the back row can see the stage, has just been designed, but whether it will ever pass into general use is a matter of extreme doubt.

Inquiring person. What time did the hotel catch fire?
 Fireman. Midnight.

Inquiring person. Everybody get out safely?
 Officer. All except the night watchman. They couldn't wake him up in time.

IN SOCIAL SPHERES.

St. John's Church, on the corner of Adams and Figueroa streets, was again the scene of a beautiful church wedding when, at 5 o'clock last evening, the rector, Rev. B. W. H. Taylor, conducted the ceremony which united the destinies of two of Los Angeles' favorite young people, George J. Kuhrt and Miss Myra H. Bennett.

The church had been decorated under the hands of friends, chiefly in green, with charming effect. When the lights shown out through latticings of ivy and interwoven palms, which were laced here and there with white ribbons, a festive air was imparted to the scene, which was soon heightened by the addition of silver tulle in soft colors.

Shortly after 8 o'clock the jovous strains of the wedding march (Mendelssohn) announced the arrival of the bride party, and the four bridesmaids and the maid of honor heralded the bride-elect, who appeared upon the arm of her father, J. H. Bennett. Entering upon the main aisle and passing between the rows of bridesmaids, who stood by twos on each side, the bride was claimed at the chancel steps by the bridegroom, supported by his best man, J. Dockweiler. The party then grouped before the rector, and the bride, who bore in her hand a handsomely-bound white marriage service book, proffered the same to the rector, who read from it the beautiful service of the Episcopal Church. The book was ordered from New York for the purpose.

After the reading of the marriage vows, the hymn, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," was then sung by a vested choir of thirty-two voices, and the service proceeded, being conducted partly at the steps of the chancel and partly at the altar.

The bride was arrayed in a rich robe of pearl white Etouffe de Soie, sweeping in full length behind her. Over this the wedding veil lent its tissue sheen.

The maid of honor, Miss Christie Bell Bennett, a young sister of the bride, bore the bridal flowers—a lovely bouquet of white carnations and smilax. She was in cream cashmere in Empire style. The bridesmaids were the Misses Lotta J. Jenkins of Omaha; Maie M. Nellie T. Bennett, sisters of the bride, and Misses L. E. and M. E. Kline in sky-blue albatross. They wore aigrettes to match the colors of their gowns and carried cream sweet peas and smilax for bouquets. The ushers were Messrs. Jeffries, Kitts, Welonskie and Williams.

Immediately upon the rector's pronouncing the young couple man and wife, the bride's veil was lifted and her bouquet presented by the maid of honor. The party then entered the vestry and signed the marriage register, and left the church in procession.

Mr. and Mrs. Kuhrt will leave at once upon a wedding trip to points of interest in Southern California. They expect to pass the summer at Santa Monica, and after November 1 will be "at home" on Yorkman street near Kuhrt, East Los Angeles.

Among many gifts of value and beauty of which the bride is the recipient, is a magnificent Weber piano.

JOHNSTON DUPUY.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized at 8 o'clock last night at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, the Rev. Alfred S. Clark, rector of Christ church, officiating.

The bride was Miss Mary Johnston, only daughter of Judge and Mrs. J. R. Dupuy, and the groom William T. Johnston of Louisville, Ky. Miss Emma Childs, a favorite in Los Angeles society, was maid of honor, and the best man was Robert Dupuy, brother of the bride. The six ushers, all old-time friends, were Messrs. A. H. Busch, Joe Easton, Felix Notman, Boyle Workman, E. R. Kellam and Langdon Easton.

To the happy strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by the organist, Preston Ware Orem, the bride party entered the flower-decked church, the bride on the arm of her father, who, at the proper time, gave her into the bridegroom's keeping. The entire service was impressive and of a measure touching, because of its severing to a great degree the ties which had for nine of her girlhood's years bound Miss Dupuy to Los Angeles. Her home will hereafter be elsewhere, and where her home is there her interests must be also.

The wedding gown was an elegant robe of white satin, falling in lustrous folds, and swept to the full extent of its long train by a shimmer of tulle, which composed the veil. The only trimming was twisted ropes of satin edging the skirt, and a rich frill of Brussels lace about the neck of the bodice. This lace, an heirloom, was worn by the bride's mother on her own wedding day. The only ornament was a diamond pendant in the shape of a gift of the groom. The bride's bouquet was a loving token from a little girl of 4, a pet of Miss Florence's, who begged to present the flowers for the happy occasion.

The maid of honor was in pure white, delicate grenadine over silk.

The decorating of the church was the work of girl friends and members of St. Paul's Guild. It was beautifully executed, the colors being pink and white.

The chancel was profusely adorned with papyrus and palms, studded with roses. Each pew bore a bunch of greens and flowers, pink and white alternating.

At the close of the ceremony the family party and intimate friends repaired to the home of Edna Dupuy, on Pico street, where supper was served in handsome style. Immediately afterward the bride and groom left, proceeding to San Francisco, en route to the World's Fair, after which they will make a two months' European tour. In this they will be joined by Louisville friends. Early in October they will return, and make Louisville their home. The bridal gifts were numerous and costly, and letters have been received saying that many would be retained in the South, to be presented upon their arrival there.

AS IT USED TO BE.

Old-time Ball Played at the Park Yesterday.

The Angels Defeat the Tail-enders by a Close Score.

Both Borchers and Fanning Pitched Good Games.

The Stocktons, Although Badly Crippled, Made an Excellent Showing and Gave the Angels a Tight Rub—Score, 5 to 3.

The game yesterday at Athletic Park was one of the old-time kind. Borchers, who pitched for the Angels, redeemed himself, while Fanning also put up a splendid game. In fact, Stockton, although badly crippled at present, is one of the strongest clubs in the league and one of the wonders of the whole season has been the facility by which Stockton hangs on to the tail-end.

The Angels yesterday made changes in the fielding positions and in the batting list. Sunday the new man was placed in right field and comes third on the batting list. Lytle was moved to left field and Hutchinson to shortstop, while Hulen placed at third, which should have been done long ago. Hughes seems to have been dropped altogether.

These changes worked well. The new man Sunday, although the heaviest man in the league, is active, runs bases well and is a good coacher. Winning yesterday's game gives the Angels a little better hold on the pennant.

Los Angeles went first to bat, but were easily retired. Stockton played in better luck and had little trouble in scoring two runs.

In the second Lytle was given a base on balls and succeeded in coming home before Wright retired the side on a fly. Stockton came near making a run. Peoples knocking a two-bagger and being advanced to third by Lawrence's sacrifice. Timely work by the Angels, however, shut off the run.

In the third neither side scored, not a man getting further than first base. In the fourth the Angels tied the score. Lohman's force and Borchers's three-bagger scored the former.

In the fifth Stockton again took the lead. Speer hit out a double, and Fanning's single sent the little Stockton catcher across the plate.

In the sixth the Angels again tied the score. Hulen got to second while several Stocktonians were engaged in the set of putting Glenalvin out at third. Lohman's two-bagger brought the sprinter home.

In the seventh the Angels clinched their victory by adding two more to their score. McCauley was given a life at first on Sweeney's drop of an easy fly. Sunday's sacrifice, Hutchinson's dinked, and Glenalvin's two-bagger scored both McCauley and Hutchinson.

The rest of the game was a beautiful exhibition of baseball as it can be played. No further runs were made, the score at the finish standing 5 to 3 in favor of Los Angeles.

These are the figures as compiled while the game was in progress:

OPERATED EXTENSIVELY.

George Craig Was Very Free With Hancock Banning's Signature.

It appears that George Craig, against whom a complaint of forgery was filed on Tuesday, in Justice Seaman's court, as reported in The Times yesterday morning, has operated in that line quite extensively.

Several days ago he called on Hancock Banning and represented that he wished to make arrangements for a Knights of Pythias excursion to Catalina Island.

Mr. Banning took down a pass pad and wrote Craig a pass to the islands. Mr. Banning then stepped out for a short time, and in his absence Craig put the pad in his pocket and walked away soon afterward.

Craig then went to several places, and was very liberal in giving out passes, to all of which he signed Hancock Banning's name. He also forged a check for $500, on the First National Bank, signing Mr. Banning's name.

Craig is much in demand among the police, and they are hunting him diligently.

Hadly Burned.

Anna Stallor, a daughter of Simon Stallor, who keeps a store at 361 East Fifth street, met with a serious accident yesterday afternoon at about 1 o'clock. The girl, who is 14 years of age, attempted to light an alcohol lamp, when an explosion occurred, throwing the burning fluid all about. It burned fiercely for a moment, and it is supposed that the girl was suffocated by it. She was picked up insensible, and it was some hours before she regained consciousness. The fire was communicated to some of the goods in the store, but was put out before doing much damage. Dr. L. Heschkowitz was called and attended the injured girl.

OFFICE OF THE TIMES.
LOS ANGELES, JUNE 28, 1893.
The Earl Fruit Company realized the following prices for California fruit in Chicago today: Oranges, seedling, packed, $2.25; @2.75; navel, $2.75; @3.25; Mediterranean sweets, $2.75; @3.25.

New York Stocks.
New York, June 28.—Harrington one or two feeble rallies, the stock market was heavy and unsettled throughout the day. The trading element, which is still bearish, was more demonstrative in their attacks than usual. Owing to the further break of 10 cents in silver certificates, and mercantile embarrassments reported in various places west, Denver and Rio Grande, preferred, scored the greatest decline, dropping 3/4, to 30 1/2. This sharp break is due to fears of closing up silver mines, which will seriously diminish the company's receipts. For the same reason Union Pacific dropped 1/2, while Ontario mining broke 1/2. Jersey Central declined 1/2. Sugar, Lead 3/4, Burlington 2, North-western 2 1/2, Rock Island 2 1/2, St. Paul 2. Government bonds closed steady.

LOSS OF POWER and vital force follow loss of flesh, or emaciation. These come from impoverished blood. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery enriches the blood, stops the waste of strength and tissue, and builds up healthy flesh. Nasty Cod Liver Oil is added, but not whole some flesh. Thin, pale, puny and scrofulous children are made plump, rosy and robust by the "Discovery." They like it, too. In recovering from "Grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other wasting diseases, it speedily and surely invigorates and builds up the whole system. As an appetizing, restorative tonic, it sets at work all the processes of digestion and nutrition, rouses every organ into natural action, and brings back health and strength. If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back.

It has cured others of Catarrh—thousands of them. Why not you? Dr. Sago's Catarrh Remedy is so positive, its makers offer $500 reward for an incurable case.

THE BANKS.

Business Moving Along as Usual.—The First National Reorganization.
There were no new features of interest in the banking situation yesterday. The deposits and withdrawals were of about the usual number and amount, and money business appeared to have settled back to about its former level.

An amount approximating $300,000 of the new stock of the First National Bank has been subscribed of the $400,000 which is expected to be issued. This $400,000, together with the present capital stock of $200,000 and the present surplus of $300,000, will make a total of $900,000, with which amount it is believed that the bank will be enabled to reopen its doors and commence business on a better basis than before the suspension.

MR. HELLMAN IN SAN FRANCISCO.
The San Francisco Call of Tuesday prints the following:

Isaiah W. Hellman, president of the Nevada Bank, returned from Los Angeles on Sunday. He was seen in his office yesterday, and was found in a very cheerful mood. Mr. Hellman, who is the leading spirit in the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank of Los Angeles, hastened to the Southern metropolis at the first sign of trouble there.

His appearance in his old town at the height of the panic last week had an almost magical effect on the people. They had lost their heads, and were raiding every bank in Los Angeles when he arrived. All the big institutions, except the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, had closed their doors. "Hellman is in town!" Hellman's name was shouted through the streets fifteen minutes after the train had arrived from San Francisco. The cry was as cheering to the mob of frantic people who were in the business quarters of Los Angeles as was the cry of "The sea!" to the column under Xenophon at the conclusion of their immortal retreat.

Mr. Hellman carried down with him $250,000, and as it was dumped into his Los Angeles bank the sight of the coin worked like a charm.

Mr. Hellman said: "Everything is all right down South. Business there is all that could be wished. Nothing could have been more senseless than the panic in the United States is in better condition than Los Angeles. I received a dispatch today from my brother, who is in charge of the bank there, stating that all cause for anxiety had disappeared, and that more money was flowing into the Los Angeles banks than was going out. I have three hundred persons here, should not have needed to all the country banks in Southern California having exchange relations with the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank."

Of course the statement about all the "big institutions" closing was a myth, which originated in the fertile brain of the Call reporter, and that paper, having had full telegraphic reports of the state of affairs days before, should not have published it. It is a statement for which Mr. Hellman is in no way responsible, as it was not incorporated in his interview, nor did he say anything of the kind.

LOSS OF THE ROYAL GEORGE.
The greatest disaster in the history of the British Navy.

The recent sinking of the British warship Victoria, with fearful loss of life, has revived interest in marine disasters, in which connection a correspondent writes Times as follows:

The loss of the Victoria has a parallel in the loss of the Royal George, which has been immortalized by Cowper. An old English writer says: Few events have ever fallen with more startling sorrow upon the public mind of Great Britain than the loss of the Royal George. In the month of August, 1782, while lying at anchor off Spithead, near Portsmouth, she carried 1,100 guns, was commanded by Admiral Kempenfelt, and was deemed the finest ship in the British navy.

"Being then ready to go to sea, she was inclined a little to one side—either to stop a leak or some similar object, but the ship was crowded with persons from the shore, among whom were some three hundred women and children. In this state of things the vessel was struck by a sudden wind, and being probably too much inclined, she was thrown farther over the water rushed into her port, she rolled and sank."

About three hundred persons were saved, but not less than a thousand perished. The effect of so fearful a tragedy may be more fully appreciated when we bear in mind that the whole British loss in the great naval battle of Trafalgar, fought a few years after—in its consequences the most important naval battle of modern times—was less than seventeen hundred."

Good Crops in Greece.
ATHENS, June 28.—The crops in Greece promise well. Currents will be above the average. Wheat and barley will be double the average.

Petty Offenders.

Justice Seaman yesterday disposed of the cases of three vagrants, in each of which sentence was suspended.

Dan McMahon and David Wilson were arraigned for petty larceny, and their examination was set for a later date.

John Benna was fined $5 for disturbing the peace.

Joachim Espar was found guilty of carrying a concealed weapon in his clothes and was fined $10. He was given until July 10 in which to pay it.

Held to Answer.
The preliminary examination of Edward A. Fry and W. M. Carnahan, charged with burglary, was concluded yesterday before Justice Seaman. The defendants were both held for the Superior Court, with bail fixed in the sum of $1000 each. It is said that Fry is related to well-to-do people in the East, and that Carnahan is a son of Gen. Carnahan, U.S.A.

The case of Tom Ward, charged with manslaughter, was continued till 9 o'clock this morning.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Intending purchasers of POND'S EXTRACT cannot take too much precaution to prevent substitution. Some druggists, trading on the popularity of the great Family Remedy, attempt to palm off other preparations, asserting them to be "the same as" or "equal to" POND'S EXTRACT, indifferent to the deceit practiced upon and disappointment thereby caused to the purchaser, so long as larger profits accrue to themselves. Always insist on having POND'S EXTRACT. Take no other.

SOLD IN BOTTLES ONLY; NEVER BY MEASURE. Quality uniform.

POND'S EXTRACT

THE WONDER OF HEALING! CURES BURNS, WOUNDS, SUNBURN, SORE EYES, INSECT BITES, FLEAS, CHAFING, FEMALE COMPLAINTS, HEMORRHOIDS, AND ALL PAIN.

Prepared only by POND'S EXTRACT CO., NEW YORK AND LONDON. See our name on every wrapper and label.

Today the International conference of the Epworth League opens at Cleveland, O.

The conference will last four days. The membership of the conference will consist of delegates from all the Methodist bodies throughout the world, including the M. E. Church South and the Wesleyan Methodist Church of England.

Topics connected with church work will be discussed and Gov. William McKinley delivers the address of welcome.

There's also a welcome today at our store for buyers of Fireworks. The largest and best selected stock at prices below any other dealer. We must carry these goods over; they must sell, come and get the benefit. Remember, Kan-Koo is the place to buy your fireworks.

Has Never Been Disappointed

The above words speak volumes and cannot be said of many things, but coming from water who has suffered from many years no further tribute can be added.

Gentlemen—I have been a sufferer from headache for many years and can cheerfully recommend Krause's Headache Capsules as being the only preparation that has given almost instant relief. Have been using them for about six months, and have never yet been disappointed in them.

Yours with respect, WILL H. SLEY, Pub. Altona (Pa.) Mirror, Beckwith & Son, 306 N. Main st.

Dr. Wong Fay's Benevolent Dispensary.

SAFEST PLACE TO TRADE

June Joggings!

FRIDAY evening at 6 o'clock one of the most wonderful sales we ever inaugurated ends. We leave it entirely to you to say whether we have not kept our word in giving you values at lower prices than have ever been offered you before by any one, whether our goods were not as fine as any in the market. We have thrown out no baits to catch the unwary, but have proven to you that your dollar spent in our mammoth establishment went just as far as $1.50 spent elsewhere. Remember, our sale ends Friday at 6 o'clock, and from now until that time we will offer you

20 INVINCIBLE VALUES 20

1st—50c a yard. Half-bleached Table Damask

68 inches wide, the quality of which is really elegant. We defy any one to say that they ever saw such a value like it before; it is all pure linen; not the flimsy kind, but a splendid weight; we have only 5 pieces which we marked down for two days only from 75c a yard.

3d—15c a yard. Satin Glorias

The handsomest line of wash fabrics that has ever been shown; we have a splendid variety of colorings, and when made up it is hard to tell the difference between it and a satin; this is the first time these goods have been cut in price, as they are splendid sellers at 25c a yard.

5th—65c each. Ladies' French Percale Shirt Waists

These come in polka dot effects only, are made in the very latest style with a ruffle front and box pleats front and back; the material is a first-class quality of French percale, and the garment is splendidly made, and would be considered good value at $1.25.

7th—8c a yard. Finest Dress Gingham

All good patterns, and a large assortment to select from; they wash splendidly, and are the celebrated Amoskeag make, and need no praise at our hands, as every one knows what they are; they retail all over for 15c a yard.

9th—3 pair for 50c. Ladies' Boot-style Hose

Here is an opportunity of buying a splendid line of hose for very little money; they come with black boot and colored uppers, are warranted all colors; we are compelled to limit the quantity to 3 pair to each customer in order to be able to supply the demand; the regular price is 35c each.

11th—45c each. Mother's Friend Shirt Waists

No more sewing on of buttons. Vacation is now at hand, and if you do not want to be bothered sewing buttons on all the time, come on and buy one of these waists; we have them in all sizes, and have a splendid line of them in both dark and light colors.

13th—65c a yard. Striped Wash Surah Silks

This is one of the finest lines shown this season; the coloring are all very desirable, and there is no danger of fading; you will admit when you see the goods that their equal has never been seen under $1 a yard.

15th—75c each. Ladies' Fancy Straw Shapes

Ladies, here is your opportunity. We have taken all our fancy shapes which we have been selling from $1.75 to $2.25, and placed them at this price. Remember, this will be for two days only. They are the very latest, and come in all colors.

17th—$1.50 a pair. Ladies' White Canvas Oxfords

We are having a big run on them, and therefore decided to continue the sale; they are a big bargain at this price; they are made with a medium heel, and are very dressy; do not think for a moment that they are the cheap oxford, for they are not; they are the same quality that is being sold all over for $2.50.
